Charm Harness And Boot, "Not Your Everyday Shoe Store"

Charm Harness & Boot Ltd. is a must see if you are visiting Amish Country. Offering anything from saddles and harnesses, work shoes and Western boots, John Deere and Farmall Toys and clothing, to high end hunting and hiking boots. It is a family owned and operated business that started from scratch in 1982 by Roy Miller. The store is now run by his three sons: Allen, Leroy, and David; along with five full time employees. Customer service and helping you find the right product for your need, is their good reputation.

They carry a large selection of high quality work and outdoor boots such as Redwing, Rocky, Georgia, Danner, Irish Setter, Wolverine, Chippewa, and Timberland just to name a few. Their beautiful display of western cowboy and fashion boots consists of brands like Justin, Ariat, Tony Lama, Dan Post, Lucchese, and Durango. A large Carhartt line is their main work-wear brand of clothing while The North Face, Columbia, and Under Armour are a couple exciting, casual, and fashion apparel brands available. "We also have a niche for high end hiking boots like the Italian

Escape The Winter Chill At Donna's Premier Lodging

Winter nights may be frosty in Ohio's Amish Country, but at Donna's Premier Lodging in Berlin, you can escape from the chill in a very special way. Cuddle up with the one you love in front of a romantic fire, cradling a hot cup of frothy cocoa, and gaze up into the night stars through the skylight in your own private sanctuary. The two of you deserve a getaway with plenty of time to reminisce and dream, and Donna's is the perfect place to begin.

Donna's Premier Lodging is renowned for its phenomenal accommodations, regardless of the season, but the long nights of winter are especially cozy here. Our cedar cabins with all the modern
