dressed like them. Garden Gate Get-A-Way Bed & Breakfast, near Berlin, is hosting a murder mystery weekend called Horror in the Haunted Mansion.

The setting of the mystery is a Hollywood movie set where they make horror films. The guests staying at the bed and breakfast that weekend will each play a character or murder suspect. One will be the actor that plays the Frankenstein or monster characters in Hollywood. One lucky lady will play the actress that lets out the blood-curdling screams in the films. Of course, every Hollywood set needs directors and camera people too. The murder mystery is played in rounds where guests will be served a din-

Many tourists visit Amish Country in the autumn months hoping to see the beautiful fall leaves and breath-taking scenes of farm fields being harvested. It is another sign that Halloween is just around the corner. While you're not going to see real monsters, vampires and goblins, you may see some people

ner. You don't have to be a professional actor or actress to participate. Each guest/character has a packet of materials that tells them what information to reveal and how to answer questions about their own character. Combine the murder mystery with evening campfires in the cool, crisp fall air and you've got the perfect autumn weekend. Guests may choose from traditional, deluxe-king, and Jacuzzi suites.

This bed and breakfast does other murder mysteries throughout the year including a New Years Eve mystery, a wedding theme, a Mardi Gras theme, an Italian theme and more. Garden Gate Get-A-Way Bed & Breakfast is easy to find. They are south of State Route 39 just west of Berlin and 5 miles east of Millersburg.
